

Embajada de España

The Hague, 20 November 2015

To Whom It May Concern:

On 9 October 2015, Mrs. Rut Codina (mezzo-soprano) and Mr. Jean Baptiste Milon (pianist) offered a mini-concert during the opening ceremony of the exhibition "Miró & CoBrA. Experimental Play" at the Cobra Museum in Amstelveen. This concert was initiated by, and organized in collaboration with, the Embassy of Spain in The Hague. Rut Codina interpreted several pieces by Spanish composers

I would like to highlight their professional skills and the enthusiasm and commitment displayed by both artists during the preparation of the concert. Their commendable willingness to collaborate and do everything possible contributed to a successful happy event.

It has been a great pleasure to collaborate with them and we hope to do it again in the near future. We are confident you will feel the same way, when you contact them for any musical event you need to organize.

Sincerely,

Fernando Fernández-Aguayo
Cultural Counsellor
